Cameco Port Hope | 2026 Community Survey Report

Executive Summary

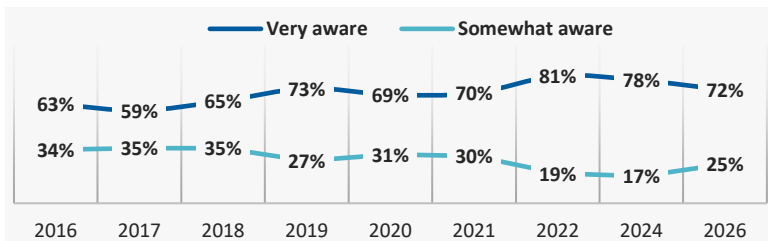

Key Findings

On behalf of Cameco Corporation, Longo Consulting conducted a public opinion survey with residents of the Municipality of Port Hope in the summer of 2026. The biennial survey monitors support for Cameco's local operations and gathers perceptions of the corporation. A survey sample of 300 residents lets us say with a 95% level of certainty that overall results are within plus or minus 5.6% of what they would be if the entire adult population of the municipality were polled. Data was weighted according to Statistics Canada Census data to ensure the sample matched Port Hope's age-based population.

7 in 10 "Very Aware" of Cameco's Port Hope Operations

Almost all respondents (97%) are at least somewhat aware of Cameco's Port Hope operations, with the large majority (72%) saying they are "very aware" of the operation.

Awareness of Port Hope Operations, 2016-2026

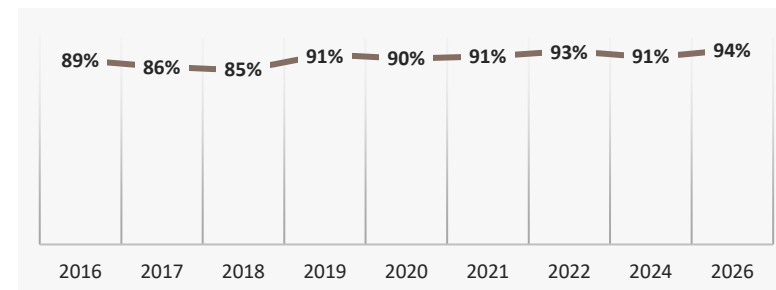

Another 83% are at least somewhat aware that Cameco is 100% Canadian-controlled, including 63% who are "very aware".

Vast Majority are Supportive of Cameco

- More than nine out of ten respondents (94%) remain supportive of the continuation of Cameco's operations in Port Hope, including a growing proportion who are "strongly supportive" (73%, up significantly from 64% in 2024).
- Long-term tracking consistently shows that the large majority of survey respondents are supportive of Cameco continuing its operations in Port Hope.

Public Support for Port Hope Operations, 2016-2026

Drivers of Public Support

- When respondents are asked the main reason they are supportive of Cameco continuing to operate in Port Hope, the largest percentage (58%) point to Cameco's contribution to the economy, jobs, and tax revenue. This has consistently been the number one reason residents support Cameco since tracking began. The next most frequently mentioned reason for support is the perception that Cameco is a good corporate citizen/good to the community (27%).
- Among the small proportion not supportive of Cameco continuing to operate in Port Hope, the most frequently cited reasons include safety and health concerns (6% of all mentions), worries about waste disposal/clean up (5%), and environmental impact (3%).

Environment, Safety & Jobs Are Top-of-Mind Issues

- When asked what types of issues are important to them when thinking about Cameco in Port Hope, environmental impact (25%) and community safety (28%) remain top-of-mind, followed by jobs (21%).

9 out of 10 Aware of Both Port Hope Facilities

- The large majority (90%) are aware that Cameco operates two facilities: the Port Hope Conversion Facility at the waterfront and Cameco Fuel Manufacturing on Dorset Street.

Large Majority Support Long-term Licence

- Nine out of ten (90%) are supportive of Cameco Conversion Facility's application to continue to operate in Port Hope over the next 20 years, including 71% who are "strongly supportive".

9 out of 10 Knowledgeable about Cameco

- Nearly all (93%) Port Hope respondents describe themselves as knowledgeable about Cameco, including 41% who describe themselves as "very knowledgeable".

Strong Majority Agree that Community Health is Protected

- More than eight in ten respondents (85%) agree that Cameco has the environmental monitoring in place that protects the health of the Port Hope community, including 62% who "strongly agree."
- Nine out of ten (91%) also agree that Port Hope is a safe and healthy place to live, including 73% who "strongly agree."

Over 8 out of 10 Proud to Have Cameco in Port Hope

- A growing proportion (86%, up from 82%) are at least somewhat proud to have Cameco as a part of the Port Hope community, including 55% who say they are "very proud".

2026 Trust Index Scores

Although Cameco receives operating licenses from federal and provincial regulatory bodies, to remain viable the company also needs a social licence to operate from the communities in which it exists. The Trust Index uses a series of questions about the company's performance regarding environmental responsibility, internal processes, and community citizenship. Respondents rate their agreement with statements using a scale of 1 to 10, where 1 is 'do not agree at all' and 10 is 'strongly agree'. Together, these statements form the Trust Index.

In 2026, Trust Index measures are up across the board and remain in the "very good to excellent" range:

- Workplace: 8.66 vs. 8.42 in 2024 and 8.48 in 2022.
- Innovation: 8.71 vs. 8.41 in 2024 and 8.54 in 2022.
- Community: 8.23 vs. 8.02 in 2024 and 8.12 in 2022.
- Environment: 8.19 vs. 7.74 in 2024 and 7.75 in 2022.
- Global Impact: 8.17 vs. 7.64 in 2024 (new question in 2024).

Vision in Motion

- Four out of ten respondents (42%) are aware of Cameco's Vision in Motion plan. This is down from 50% in 2024 but consistent with data from 2022.
- Approximately half (55%) are satisfied with the progress made to date on the Vision in Motion plan, including 30% who are "very satisfied". Overall, 31% are unaware or unsure.

Multiple Media Channels Used for Local Info

- Respondents get information about local events from multiple media channels: 61% from letters/flyers/mail, 38% from Port Hope social media, 33% from websites, 26% from community emails, 23% from TV/radio, 21% from word of mouth, and 20% from local newspapers.

7 out of 10 Recall Receiving Cameco Newsletter

- Seven out of ten (73%) respondents recall receiving a newsletter from Cameco. Of these respondents, 84% say they read some of the newsletters.

5 out of 10 Aware of Westinghouse Ownership

- One out of two respondents (53%) is aware that Cameco owns 49% of Westinghouse, including 31% who are “very aware”.

4 out of 10 Aware of AP1000 Technology

- Two-fifths of respondents (42%) had heard of the AP1000 nuclear reactor technology prior to completing the survey, while the balance had either never heard of the technology (55%) or were unsure (3%).

Trust is Highest for Cameco to Operate Nuclear Energy Technologies

- More than nine in ten respondents (95%) have at least some trust in Cameco to safely manage nuclear energy technologies like AP1000, including 55% who have a great deal of trust.
- By comparison, 78% trust Westinghouse to manage such technologies (including 38% who have a great deal of trust in Westinghouse) and 84% trust other Canadian energy companies (including 29% who have a great deal of trust).

More than 8 out of 10 Comfortable with AP1000 Use in Canada

- Almost nine out of ten (86%) feel at least somewhat comfortable with the use of AP1000 nuclear technology in Canada, including 51% who are very comfortable.

Methodology

In the summer of 2026, Longo Consulting conducted the annual public opinion survey with residents of the Municipality of Port Hope to monitor support for Cameco’s local operations and gather perceptions regarding the corporation. The survey was in the field from July 7th to 19th.

The sample included 300 Port Hope and area residents and was done by landline and mobile telephone. Elemental Research (Ottawa) conducted the telephone interviews. The survey questionnaire includes baseline questions asked in previous years, allowing us to monitor changes in public opinion and perceptions over time.

The survey sample frame is constructed to obtain interviews from a random selection of households in the Municipality of Port Hope, which consists of two wards. Ward 1 is the urban sector with the majority of commercial and industrial development. It was the former Town of Port Hope prior to amalgamation in 2001. Ward 2 is the former Hope Township and consists of several hamlets including Welcome, Campbellcroft, Garden Hill and Perrytown.

The overall margin of error for a probability-based telephone survey with a random sample of 300 respondents is +/- 5.6%, with a 95% confidence interval (19 times out of 20). Margins of error are greater for smaller sub-groups within the sample.

Trust Index

Although Cameco receives operating licenses from federal and provincial regulatory bodies, to remain viable the company also needs a social licence to operate from the communities in which it exists.

A Trust Index (TI) was developed to calculate overall public support for Cameco in Port Hope based on the integration of public perceptions regarding the company's environmental responsibility, internal processes, and community citizenship. Taken together, these form a trust index, which is a key aspect of measuring public support for Cameco and its operations in Port Hope.

Respondents are asked to rate their agreement with statements using a scale of 1 to 10, where 1 is 'do not agree at all' and 10 is 'strongly agree'. In 2024, the trust index was adjusted to include ten statements. We recommend interpreting ratings in the 1 to 4 range as "in need of improvement," ratings in the 5 to 6 range as "satisfactory", and ratings in the 7 to 10 range as "very good to excellent".

2026 Trust Index Scores

In 2026, all Trust Index measures have improved and are in the "very good to excellent" range:

- Workplace: 8.66 vs. 8.42 in 2024 and 8.48 in 2022.
- Innovation: 8.71 vs. 8.41 in 2024 and 8.54 in 2022.
- Community: 8.23 vs. 8.02 in 2024 and 8.12 in 2022.
